This is the eleventh of several applications for authority to distribute portions of the money plaintiffs received from Exxon as partial payments on the punitive damages judgment entered by the United States Supreme Court. The current application to distribute punitive damages covers (1) claimants in any of the 51 claim categories that have a single payment, but no other liens, which still must be made to a lienholder; and (2) claimants who have resolved impairments in their claims since the last application.

See Declaration Of Lynn Lincoln Sarko In Support Of Lead Counsel's Eleventh Punitive Damages Application For An Order Distributing Exxon Qualified Settlement Funds To Claimants In Various Categories And Their Attorneys, filed herewith.

Exhibit A to this declaration sets out the amounts of punitive damages principal going to claimants in both categories. There are 274 claims being paid, the total amount of which is $2,541,079.64. Exhibit B to this declaration sets out the amounts of punitive damages interest going to claimants in both categories. There are 1060 claims being paid, the total amount of which is $22,006,080.21.

The dollar figures provided in Exhibits A and B are gross dollar allocations on claims prior to any deductions for attorneys' fees or costs. The total amount of gross payments under this Eleventh Distribution Application is approximately $24,547,159.85.

We currently anticipate that the next applications will cover claimants with primarily multiple liens, as well as any claimants who have resolved any outstanding impairments between the date of this application and the next. Claims involving multiple impairments are particularly cumbersome because multiple interest calculations are often involved, requiring individualized attention.

A proposed order is attached authorizing the proposed distributions discussed in this application.

Respectfully submitted this 17th day of March, 2010.
